Impact Summary:  State Government: No
Local Government: No
Substantial Economic Impact: No

04 NCAC 02S .0512(f)(1) and (2) no longer exists. This rule change removes the requirement to maintain inventory records that were previously required by .0512(f)(1) and (2).

Because the section of the other rule was previously deleted, there is no requirement to maintain special inventory records for guest room cabinet liquor the first year of operation. If this section of the rule is not removed and was contested in the future, it would be ruled moot. This rule change might lead to some small time savings for the private sector. The amendment would have little to no impact state or local governments time related to enforcement of this rule.
